Secure,

NOW and Forever

What would it be like to come into the instant possession of forty million dollars? Mike Wittowski knows. In September of 1984 the numbers on his Illinois lottery ticket matched up with those of the Grand Prize drawing. The result: two million a year for the next twenty years. A stupendous sum of money.

Four years after he won, Mike had married and started a family. He was asked, “Mike, what was the most important thing about winning all that money?”

“Security,” Mike replied. “It's given me plenty of security, and you can't beat that. Security is the most important thing, and I have it for

Luke 12, and all the wealth that man possessed was powerless to extend his life one day longer. Another reason is that, even if you could take a fortune with you when you died (which is impossible) it wouldn't be enough to buy an exit from a lost eternity. Die without Christ, and money—even millions—will not buy your way out of hell.

Security is a most important thing. It's wonderful to have it for ourselves and also

One reason is that, "Our

times are in Thy hands"—that is, God chose

the time we were brought into this world, and He will

choose the time we leave it. "This might

thy soul shall be required of thee," are the words God spoke to a certain rich man in

"I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of My hand."
