Twenty-Three

Dan greeted the visiting evangelist
with a challenging smile. “I’m not so bad,” he said. “I must admit one little slip, when I got into trouble with the police, but I can show you a pile of reward books which I got for attendance and good conduct at Sunday school! Then I went to Bible class, and “for if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt

believe in thine
heart that God
hath raised Him
from the dead,

Dan's smile was gone now. Seriously, he asked, “What can I do?”

“You can do nothing but to take a sinner's place
and claim the sinner's Saviour. Then you may be sure that ‘the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us
from all sin.’”

There and pretty regularly. Not too bad!”

“How old are you?” asked the Christian.

“Twenty-three.”

“Now listen,”

said the other.

“Won't you admit that few days have passed that you haven't had a foolish thought?

God's Word says: The thought of foolishness is sin. Have you also said silly things?”

“Well, of course!”

“The Lord Jesus Christ said that,

‘Every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment;’

Do you sometimes tell lies, or break laws, or lose your temper?”

“Every day!”

“You have admitted

three sins a day; this means that on the lowest average you have committed no less than one thousand a year. On your own confession, you stand convicted of twenty-three thousand sins!”
